

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
HEADQUARTERS 81ST TRAINING GROUP (AETC)

9 October 2018

MEMORANDUM FOR A1C KYSER J. CLARK

FROM: 336 TRS/TRM

SUBJECT: Letter of Appreciation

1. A1C Clark, you have been a vital part of the 336th Training Squadron as an Airman Leader achieving the level of Yellow Rope. In this unique capacity, you assisted the Military Training Leaders in the management of airmen on your assigned floor, fostered esprit de corps, and led your fellow Airmen by example. You demonstrated the highest degree of integrity, responsibility, and military bearing. You maintained good order and discipline amongst your peers in the 336th TRS, Keesler AFB, Mississippi.
2. You are commended for your excellent work while assigned to the 336th Military Training Flight. Your outstanding leadership ability, superior knowledge, and exemplary behavior made you an invaluable asset to this organization. Although your Airman Leader position required you to work beyond normal duty hours, you always accepted this increased responsibility with enthusiasm. Your countless hours of volunteer service to Keesler AFB and the local area have proven to be invaluable.
3. I want to personally thank you for your service as an Airman Leader. Your past performance is indicative of your potential for an outstanding career in the United States Air Force. Your diligence has not gone unnoticed and I would like to personally extend my gratitude to you on a job well done. The fine leadership qualities you possess are inherent with success. I wish you continued success in your future. We need high quality leadership in the Air Force and I look forward to hearing about your success in the near future!

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Floyd R. Jones", is positioned above the typed name.

FLOYD R. JONES, SSgt, USAF
Military Training Leader
336th Military Training Squadron